Typical 3F blowout for trainer, West. Did it easily w/out being asked.

Afleet Deal	10/21	SA/FT	4F	48.2h
Pretty solid 4 panels for this bottom level CLM event. Never received a hint of urging & looked no worse for wear on the return home.

Benecia	10/19	SA/FT	5F	101.4h
Left a good impression w/this move despite losing at Fairplex facing $5K competition. Handled the distance very easily & may just wake up on this surface at a big price.
8th RACE
Viva Carina (ARG)	10/20	SA/FT	7F	129.2h
Pretty dull drill from the outset of departing the 7F marker. Traveled handily down the backstretch but appeared disinterested & weary in the final stages in the stretch.
Open Water	10/20	SA/FM	5F	100.8h
Looked solid over the local lawn & that's a good insight having never raced on this course. Showed good interest early while earning an internal split of 36 3/5. Finished up well in the lane to cover the last ¼ in 24 1/5.
Jolly Days	10/20	SA/FM	6F	113.4h
Never raced on this course but appears very comfortable over it. The latest drill was a good elongated move that showed good interest throughout & appeared very capable of more if called upon.
Customer Base	10/20	BHP/FT	5F	101.6h
Departed from the 5/8 pole & went in 37.2 to the top. Was well in hand through the stretch finishing up in 101.3 looking to have plenty left.

Easy move on the grass but did show a nice turn of foot in the lane to get the final ¼ in 24.0 flat.
9th RACE
Mr. Cappuccino	10/21	BHP/FT	3F	39.0h
Was slow throughout the drill never really showing much. Finished up in dull fashion through the stretch in 39 flat.
Mr Phalaris	10/17	SA/FT	3F	35.6hG
First timer w/just an average pedigree & a foundation of works to match. Looked decent in most recent drill out of the gate but was sent early & appeared weary on the gallop out.
Mayan Eyes	10/20	SA/FT	3F	36.3h
Blueprint Polonco trained blowout for any race. 3F is the call. What can you say? He accomplished the drill easily as expected & looked no worse for wear on the return home.
Debits and Credits	10/20	SA/FT	6F	114.3h
Comes from veteran barn & this elongated drill as a solo was better than average. Showed good interest throughout & never was asked & appeared capable of more as he galloped out past the wire fairly strong.
